DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 5-9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 2 recites the broad recitation 3-30 MHz, and the claim also recites preferably about 7 MHz which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fischell et al '449 in view of Paul et al '958.

Fischell et al show all of the claimed features except for a rectification circuit in a cardiac defibrillation device.

Paul et al teach using a rectifier with an antenna circuit. FIG. 4 shows a detector circuit 110 for use in an implantable medical device, including a tuned antenna circuit 112 having an antenna of any type, and an impedance-matching network 114. Output from the network 114 is communicated to a fullwave rectifier, comprising two zero-bias Schottky diodes 116 and 118.

One of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to use the rectifier teaching of Paul et al with the magnetic induction antenna teaching of Fischell et al in a defibrillator because both antennae are used for programming implantable defibrillators.
